JUDGMENT

It was submitted before me by both sides on more than one occasion that the Government has already written to the appellant-Society to shift the business in question from the suit schedule property to another building. In fact, a copy of the Government's letter was also shown to me by the counsel. I do not find any reason as to why the Government's instructions should not be obeyed by the petitioner-Society. Under these circumstances, the Second Appeal will stand closed continuing the order of stay presently passed for a period of four more months from today. No costs.
